Cause considered. Motion to reconsider striking and exclusion of Department of Correction's expert witnesses is denied. State's motion to continue is considered after the Court encouraged consideration of settlement the pending lawsuit. The State has entertained that recommendation and desires to enter good faith settlement discussions. Over strong objection by Plaintiff, the case is continued to August 6, 2018 for jury selection and trial. No further continuances will be granted. Parties are ordered into court ordered mediation. Case set for conference call on June 18, 2018 at 10:00 am.
